

Navigating Autism Intervention Services: A Parent Info Session

June 7, 2016

9:30 am - 11:30 am

Squamish Academy of Music

Please join us for a free information session led by Louise Broadley, Manager of Autism Information Services with ACT – Autism Community Training on navigating autism services and interventions available for children with autism living in B.C.

Topics include:

- Next Steps after a diagnosis of autism
- Basics on the Autism Funding Program
- Strategies for setting up your team in a small community
- Setting up contracts with service providers
- The importance of collaboration between professionals and families

There will be time for networking with other families. Representatives from MCFD and community service providers will also be on hand to answer any questions. This free information session is sponsored by MCFD.

Who should attend: Parents and family members of children with autism as well as the professionals who support them including teachers, support workers and health professionals.

The session will be held on June 7th from 9:30am-11:30am at Squamish Academy of Music (38121 2 Ave, Squamish, BC). Coffee and light refreshments will be provided.

We ask that you RSVP via info@actcommunity.ca or by calling 1-866-939-5188 so we can ensure we have enough refreshments
