

Acknowledgements

ACT is very grateful to all our conference presenters for agreeing to contribute to this important topic. In particular, we appreciate our keynote speakers, Dr. Lynn Kern Koegel and Dr. Ilene Schwartz for taking the time to travel to British Columbia to share their expertise.

We also appreciate the response of our registrants who are joining us from across Canada. Many schools have set-up special sites to join us as a group via web streaming. This conference we have been particularly impressed by the response of faith based schools including those who serve Jewish, Muslim, Sikh and Catholic communities.

ACT – Autism Community Training depends on the many parents and professionals across British Columbia who volunteer their time to support our work. This conference has been made possible through funding from CIRCA - the Centre for Interdisciplinary Research and Collaboration in Autism at the University of British Columbia. We also thank Simon Fraser University's Department of Psychology which facilitates ACT enjoying SFU's excellent downtown facilities at a reduced cost.

In 2017, ACT provided 14,000 hours of live training to 1,200 registrants. As funding from registrations does not cover the full costs of running events, we are grateful for those who donate to ACT. Unfortunately, our funding for 2019 is insufficient to continue with live events unless we find new sources of funding which ACT is actively seeking. If you would like to support ACT's training please see www.actcommunity.ca/support-us/donating for more information on donating.
