

This person has an Autism Spectrum Disorder (ASD)

ASD is diagnosed in 1 of 66 children

Autism is a life-long neurological disorder that inhibits proper understanding of what a person sees, hears or otherwise senses. People with ASD can become confused and respond inappropriately in social situations. We are committed to helping him/her participate in our community and would appreciate your patience.

Autism Information Database: www.actcommunity.ca/aid

A free portal to over 1,300 autism and special needs resources, sourced internationally and relevant world-wide.

Autism Videos @ ACT: www.actcommunity.ca/videos

Practical information for parents and professionals featuring community-focused presentations by respected clinicians.

BC Community Resources: www.actcommunity.ca/bcresources

Autism & Special Needs Resources specific to British Columbia.
