

Principal Investigator: Jill G. Zwicker, PhD, OT

Associate Professor, Department of Occupational Science & Occupational Therapy

Associate Member, Department of Pediatrics, Division of Developmental Pediatrics

Investigator, BC Children's Hospital Research Institute

Clinician Scientist, Sunny Hill Health Centre for Children

Does your child have Autism and trouble learning motor skills, such as printing or riding a bicycle?

https://www.astro.org/uploadedImages/Main\_Site/News\_and\_Media/News\_Releases/2013/abstract\_10\_215x245.jpg

We are seeking children with Autism and diagnosed/suspected Developmental Coordination Disorder (DCD) (8-12 years old) to participate in a magnetic resonance imaging (MRI) study to compare brain structure and function between children with Autism+DCD and typically developing children.

Participants will receive 10 weeks of occupational therapy to work on child-specific motor goals.

DCD & ASD Imaging Study contact person:

Gisela Gosse, Research Nurse

ggosse@cw.bc.ca

604-875-2345, ext. 5948