

Exploring different treatment doorways:

Social Learner _____ Date _____

Put A  For Each Door That Is Relevant For Your Social Learner desires to figure out how to work with peers wants to make a friend seeks to avoid peers and thinks they are unkind socially inattentive— does not appear to be connected to what’s going on appears too friendly or not reading the cues accurately even if they are trying so anxious, sad or depressed that they presently are not seeking to be with others often in conflict with adults academic challenges (even if testing indicates they appear to be fine) struggle with organizational skills and time management has a unique talent or interest that might be motivating denies any needs at all and just wants to be left alone.

